Notice to applicant

For approval for a fee reduction, you will need to show that your income, day-to-day living expenses, liabilities and assets are at such a level that payment of the full fee would cause you financial hardship.

In considering your application the Court may ask you to provide documentary evidence to support your claim. In this case your application will be returned to you with instructions as to what further information you need to provide in the 'Notice of request for more information' on page 3 of this form.

If you are applying for a reduced court fee, this form must be lodged at the same time as the application being filed.

An approval is valid only for the current court fee for which you are applying. If a further fee is payable you will need to reapply.

- Cross boxes where applicable. Type or print clearly.
- Attach an extra page if you need more space for any of the details requested
- If your application for reduction is unsuccessful, you will be required to pay the full filing fee before your forms will be accepted.

Warning: Under the Criminal Code any person who knowingly makes an untrue representation or statement to obtain a benefit or advantage from the Commonwealth is guilty of an offence and, if found guilty, can be fined or imprisoned.

Note: Where there is more than one applicant to an application, all applicants must meet the requirements for an exemption/reduction or the full fee applies.

Reductions only apply to divorce application and decree of nullity fees and do not apply to fees to serve documents on a person.

GST does not apply to court fees.
